

Video Relay services should not be limited to only telephone companies, but be open to any provider that has certified/qualified Interpreters.